Dear Future World Leaders

Thank you for meeting me last week and talking about your 'Send My Friend to School' campaign. The pictures and models were very good and I enjoyed reading your words. I agree it is important that everyone should receive a proper education wherever they live.

You are the future World Leaders and it is important that politicians listen to you. I will be in the House of Commons next week and I am taking your drawings and words with me to show some of the other MPs.

I will be recording their journey on twitter @RachaelMaskell so that many more people will learn about the 'Send My Friends to School' campaign.

Yours sincerely

Rachael Maskell
