Dear Fishergate Children,

I cannot believe that we have got to the half term already – I bet that you and your grown-ups are ready for a break. Thank you to all of you for working so hard and really engaging with the Google Classroom activities as well as the class meet ups and Zoom sessions. I think that you have all given us grown-ups a good lesson in how to make the best of our strange new world. I think that the thing I am finding the most difficult is not knowing for definite when we can start getting back to normal and slowly start getting you guys into Fishergate again! But like Captain Sir Tom says “Tomorrow will be a good day.” So for now I am just thinking about tomorrow and not worrying about what might or might not happen later on! Maybe you could try and do that too if you sometimes feel a little bit worried.

I have finished my kindness assemblies but I really liked this story and wanted to share it with you so here it is: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8Wi0UWLeT9I> I hope that you enjoy it as much as I did. Don't forget to start your own little ripple of kindness.

I hope that you and your families have a lovely half term.

Take care and be kind,
Mrs Clarke
