

Coronavirus Support Line

Open to all parents and carers who live in the City of York and practitioners who work with children and young people who live/attend an educational setting in the City of York.

Confidential telephone support, staffed by psychologists, to talk through questions or concerns about children and young people's wellbeing or learning related to the period of school closure or restrictions due to the coronavirus pandemic.

Call slots of up to 30 minutes, available during term time:

Wednesday mornings 9am-11.30am

From November 4th to December 16th 2020

Please note, this is intended as a short consultation slot for specific coronavirus related concerns; unfortunately, we are unable to advise effectively on more complex SEND situations within this time frame.
